THE Cincinnati Gazette remarks upor the threatening of the Copperheads relative to the draft-"The Government wil permit you tossy anything you please, but when you come to the 'overt act,' you will feel weak in the knees and tremble eve before such an 'imbecile' as Old Abe." We have no doubt that this is true, but it seem inconsistent to menace the suppression newspapers because they talk treason-as ome passionate journals have done. Be sides, as a stroke of policy, it is absurd to the last degree. While it is certainly aggravating to patriotic men to know that papers, hostile to the national cause, are published in all parts of the loyal North, t is yet satisfactory to know that they rive honest men from their party into the the Union ranks. Let honest men among he Copperheads realize that their leaders are endeavoring to foment civil war-as hey are doing-and thousands will desert them to vote the Union ticket. If action s to be taken at all with respect to Copperhead newspapers, let it be done exactly according to the laws of Congress, and All Kinds of Paper at Cincinnati Prices. by civil process. While we have no doubt of the strict right of the Government to exreise its military power in this respect, we et believe that the most politic way is to ndict-those who are accused of violating he law and arrest them by civil process. Let their newspapers alone, but arrest the editors and try them by jury. But never strong enough to justify a reasonable exaws are not sufficient to meet treason in the various forms developed since this war begun, let Congress enact the necessary laws so that public rights may be protect-

Rebel Terms of Peace. Citizens of Indiana! The Copperhead Politicians of our State are crying out for "peace on any terms," and they tell you it is a very easy matter to "compromise with our misguided Southern brethren."-To clearly understand the position of the enemy, read the following "conditions of peace" on which the official organ of the rebel government, the Richmond Engirer, of October 16, proposes to settle and have

"Save on our own terms, we can accept no peace whatever, and must fight til doomsday rather than yield one jota of them; and our terms are: "Recognition by the enemy of the In-dependence of the Confederate States. "Withdrawal of Yankee forces from evory foot of Confederate ground, including Kentucky and Missouri. "Withdrawal of Yankee soldiers from Maryland, until that State shall decide, by a free vote, whether she shall remain in the old Union, or ask admission into th Confederacy.
